

YorkShield 106 HP™

High Performance Copper Wood Frame Flashing

Copper: Distinctive...
Timeless...Affordable.

You'll find it on the most expensive homes in town. Copper trim. It's the mark of elegance and exclusivity. Beautiful even as it ages to a soft patina, copper trim turns the simplest house into a stunning showcase.

If you think copper is too expensive or too difficult to work with for most wood frame construction, think again. YorkShield 106 HP™ is the cost-effective alternative to heavy-gauge 16 oz. decorative copper flashing, that provides all the beauty and performance of copper at a fraction of the cost!

Imagine it around windows, doors, sills. Picture it glistening in the valleys of a complex roof design. Wherever it's used, YorkShield 106 HP will be dependable and long-lasting, but most of all, impressively beautiful.
